THE JEROME HYNES YOUNG COMPOSERS' AWARD 2017

Guidelines and Application Form

Jerome Hynes Young Composers' Award 2017

The National Concert Hall invites composers to apply for the Jerome Hynes Young Composers' Award 2017.

This award is for the commission of a new work for our development orchestra, SinfoNua. The new work will be premiered in summer 2018, giving the young composer a platform to showcase their talent.

Guidelines

- Entrants must be under the age of 30 on 13 May 2017, and resident or domiciled in Ireland.
- Entrants must submit the scores of two existing original pieces, at least one of which must be for orchestra.
- Scores may be submitted by hard copy (three copies) by post to the address below, or by pdf to: education@nch.ie
- A completed application form must accompany each application.
- Entries must be submitted by 5.30pm on Wednesday 17 May 2017 to education@nch.ie or

Jerome Hynes Young Composers' Award 2017,
Learning and Participation,
The National Concert Hall
Earlsfort Terrace,
Dublin 2

- An audio recording of the two submitted pieces is ideal but not essential, either on disc to the address above, with the application or as an MP3 file to: education@nch.ie no later than 5.30pm on Wednesday 17 May 2017
- Previous winners of this competition are not eligible to enter
- €2,500 will be awarded to the winning composer
- Only one application per composer will be accepted
- Judging will be anonymous; the composer's name will be removed from the manuscript before being given to the judges
- The judges' decision is final and is not open to appeal
- Compositions and recordings cannot not be returned
- The winning composer will retain the copyright of the commissioned work
- The submitted compositions must be the work of the original entrant.
